Ald. Campbell Deals With Cost Of Living Bonus: Fry On Record

First flash of fireworks of the civic election campaign so far sparked meetings held Friday night in the Memorial hall and the Alberta Avenue Community hall. Attendance at both meetings was greater than at previous gatherings and indicated a rising interest in the campaign.

There were just over 100 at the Memorial hall and some 60 at the Alberta Avenue hall. The chairman at the former meeting and George Shannon at the latter. Next meeting will be Monday night at Norwood school.

Mayor John W. Fry, independent candidate for re-election, spoke principally on his elimination from the Citizens' Committee slate, on which he had been elected for the past four years. He declared he could not understand how four years could constitute the limit of service for a mayor whose administration was declared efficient by former backers.

Senate Votes To Permit U.S. Ships Sail Any Seas

By RICHARD L. TURNER
WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—
(AP)—The Senate voted 50 to 37 last night to amend the neutrality act so that United States ships may mount guns for their protection and sail through any seas and to any ports, including combat zones and the harbors of belligerent nations.

It took this action at the end of a long day and evening of tense and sometimes dramatic debate, which found the opposition to the Roosevelt foreign policy making a last-ditch stand against legislation which it frequently called a prelude to war.

The measure now goes back to the House of Representatives for action upon highly important and controversial Senate amendments. As originally passed by the house,

Churchill May Reply To Questions Soon

LONDON, Nov. 8.—(CP)—Parliamentary circles expressed relief today Prime Minister Churchill would reply soon in the House of Commons to questions on Government policy posed by his agitation for a more determined war effort and by Joseph Stalin's implied appeal for more military assistance.

expectations persisted the government might be altered in response to criticism levelled at the cabinet members, though informed quarters said recently Mr. Churchill had no intention of making any major changes.

The possibility was discussed Mr. Churchill might change his mind on the question of establishing a strongly centralized ministry of production, with a probable change in office for Lord Minister Bevin or for Lord Beaverbrook, minister of supply. Both have been reported suffering from asthma.

The government's critics, meanwhile, were preparing a barrage of questions to be fired at the Prime Minister in anticipation of an all-out debate in Commons.

Meighen Rejects Tory Leadership

By NORMAN MacLEOD

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—(BUP)—Conservative Senate Leader Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen told the national Conservative conference today that he could not accept the party leadership since it had not been offered unanimously.

The language freeing all British shipping from the restrictions of the War Measures Act, and the Neutrality Act proved the controversial feature of the bill in the senate's debate. By comparison there was relatively little opposition to the ship-racing clause.

Opposition repeatedly and at length contended that permitting American vessels to carry cargo to Great Britain would be a violation of the neutrality act which would surely lead to war.

Gas Rationing Is Due Soon, Howe Tells Commons

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—(CP)—For the first time since war started Canadians are going to feel the pinch of compulsory rationing. It is coming "in due course," Munitions Minister Howe told the House of Commons, and it will mean that a ration coupon is good for just so many gallons of gasoline for pleasure driving.

This was the statement made here Friday by Robert Casey, famous foreign correspondent for the Chicago Daily News, and whose articles on the war appear exclusively in The Edmonton Bulletin.

A bulletin from Hitler's field headquarters asserted that German armies in the Crimea had broken through a six-mile-deep Russian defence zone guarding the narrow Kerch peninsula and were continu-

As pictured by the high command, the Germans were striking at the Crimea's last-ditch defences, attacking Soviet forces in the Yaila mountains, hammering the outer ramparts of the Sevastopol naval base, and blasting Russian transport assemblies off the Crimean coast for use as a possible "escape fleet" for Red army troops.

The high command claimed Nazi and Rumanian forces had annihilated a Soviet cavalry division on the southern slope of the Yaila mountains, west of Kerch.

Civilians Are Urged to Help in Recruiting

CALGARY, Nov. 8.—(CP)—A conference of 185 key men in civilian recruiting held here Friday night, Major J. H. Kinn, M.C., presiding, revealing that the M.C. is now "so far as the planter goes, is in the air, but for the army, it is a step ahead of them."

"I feel the army is coming into its own. Go around the men in your territory and recruit a sense of responsibility. With your own initiative co-operation we can bring the army into its own as the leading fighting force," said Major Kinn.

MUST STAND BY

He was one of many speakers at the conference which opened at 8 p.m. and ended with a social evening with a movie at Currier Barracks. Major J. V. Chase, district paymaster, said that the army is now dependent on the civilian.

Reginald F. M. W. Harvey, district officer commanding, stressed the necessity for immediate manpower. He pointed out that the Canadian (active) army were now have enough men to keep them going for about two weeks and fighting. He urged that young Canadians be asked not to let the Empire down and to let down their brothers in arms already serving overseas.

C. G. Greer, and C. M. G. for M.D. 13 gave a brief outline of the administration and organization of the army in Canada and overseas.

MEN GIVE EXHIBITION

The party was taken to Sarsen camp where the soldiers gave exhibitions of ballroom dancing, rifle and Bren gun, also a demonstration of Tommy gun firing and trench markers. Later, they made a visit to Currier Barracks where demonstrations of ballroom dancing, grenade throwing and gas attacks were performed by the men in training there.

After an inspection of the men's existing quarters all the party had supper with the men in the army mess.

Col. James Nesbitt, director of national recruiting, Ottawa, advised the delegates that the army left by train last night for Regina, where he will address a similar conference.

The British report that the attack was the biggest ever made in the history of the R.A.F., that despite the severe losses the R.A.F. may not have approached the point of no return. The R.A.F. is now in a position to make a wide range of air attacks. That would mean that more than 200 planes would be used in the attack.

The air ministry said the big raid had been planned to take advantage of a full moon and anticipated fairly good weather.

said to Ald. Campbell, "Your amendment to the pension motion was an attempt to evade the motion."

"It was nothing of the sort," Mr. Campbell replied. "I was trying to get something new."

Following is a report of the speakers' addresses:

Mayor John W. Fry (Independent Liberal): "I have been mayor for the last four years. Each time I have been endorsed by the Citizens' Committee. This time I haven't."

I have asked them the reason for dropping me. No satisfactory reason has been given.

They say I've done a good job. But you don't expect a man who has done a good job to be turned down. The only reason they have given is that I've been there too long.

The Edmonton civic administration is a big business. It is the biggest business in Edmonton and when a man has managed it for four years, efficiently and to the benefit of the city, why should he be turned down? If I am asked why, why should four years be the limit of a man's term in office? It is four years the limit in any business? Are managers of other businesses, who are asked to hold the mayor's chair, are given up their jobs after four years?

Are they giving up their jobs so soon? No, none have been in for four years. Why do you want to drop me? Why do you want to drop me? Why do you want to drop me?

cheap. We could have paid the debt off that way.

We hope to have it all cleared off in another year.

Not only that, but I found the utilities in bad shape and they needed much repair. The utilities have been repaired and extended.

The northern telephone exchange was built and money was provided. New outlets were added in the west end and I am sure that the utilities improved the service wonderfully. The numbers payable for telephone is therefore very low and we have to do much more to meet the demand.

Regarding the power plant, I may say that when I first went on council, there was much talk of the Calgary Power Company agreement. We all wanted to extend our plant. We all believed in public ownership. But we did not have the money to make the first payment on a new turbine.

or financial interests of salaries in practically all schedules and, since the governments policy is not obligatory on this city, we stay in day bound to consult with the employees' representatives before we can carry out our policy.

The principle of the cost-of-living bonus is to acknowledge the cost and put into operation but the employees' representatives are not to their workers' pursuance of a recognized policy of collective bargaining.

Before any change is made we should consult the civic employees' federation. There are some things in this budget as well as others.

If we have the cost-of-living bonus instead of the automatic increase of wages that is in all right, and the automatic increase of wages instead of the cost-of-living bonus that is also all right. But we cannot have both.

Our former lady alderman claims the utility rates should be reduced. She talks about our fares being reduced. We have had a deficit of $50,000 or $60,000 each year on the street railways. Utilities here are cheap compared to Calgary and Vancouver.

If utility rates are reduced the taxpayers will have to carry the load and the little fellow with the home is hit the hardest. The big businessman can pay the tax increase on the consumer.

Civic employees can have either a cost-of-living bonus or the automatic salary increase. They can't get both.

Girl Guides Hear Reports Year's Events

LLOYDMINSTER. While there was not a very large turnout at the annual meeting of the Lloydminster Girl Guide Association, those present heard a splendid report of the year's work given by the executive committee. Mrs. H. H. Brown, president, reported an enrollment of 96 girls. First Lloydminster troop, 24; second Lloydminster troop, 30; and the Brownie pack, 22. 25 girls attained second class standing, while 41 proficiency badges were earned during the year, including Artists, Athletes, Embroiders, Chorus, Nurses, Knitters, Housewives, Landscapers, Comptrollers, and Farmers. Mrs. Brown also reported that three of the girls had the distinction of earning "Wings" which signifies that their first class tests were passed at the age of ten years. Miss Gladys Davis is lieutenant of the second Lloydminster troop. Mrs. A. R. Brown reported on camp at Loon Lake in August and gave a detailed report of the Provincial conference of the Girl Guide association in Edmonton. The meeting approved the executive decision to co-operate with Scouts in securing a hall for meetings. During the year, Mrs. Brown was appointed district commissioner. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Brown, chairman; Mrs. E.

Host At Tea

TODAY'S MESSAGE

By REV. CANON A. M. TRENDLELL
Rector All Saints' Cathedral.

We Will Remember Them

Their glory shall not be blotted out—Eccles. 44:13

A GOOD deal of sentimental rubbish has been written and spoken about the men who fell during the last war.

As a matter of fact most of them were just plain ordinary people with the average virtues and virtues of most men.

But we pause at this time of the year to honour them because they deserve to be honoured.

They recognized their duty during the last war and like the many who were fortunate and came back they followed that path and gave their all that the world might be a better place to live in.

But the generation for which they fought let them down badly. There men died that justice might reign. They died that freedom might be a real thing, but grinding poverty has been a world wide curse since the grim days of 1914-1918.

They sacrificed themselves unselfishly during those years in the defence of a humanity that has too largely taken all and given as little as possible in return during the years since.

So we are at war again. That was inevitable, for wars are built on injustice, poverty and selfishness. Another generation is called to give their lives, not because the sacrifice of our fathers was in vain; no sacrifice is wasted.

It was because humanity drifted back to the old pagan law of "Each man for himself, and the devil take the hindmost."

God grant that all may learn the lesson this time. It is my belief that we will, and that a new world order will arise. Building on the foundation of their devotion to duty it is our task to continue with the superstructure, but in doing so we will never weary of paying honour to the men who gave their lives, and we will see to it that their glory shall not be blotted out.

A. L. Burrows, who will be among the hosts and assistant hosts receiving at the special Remembrance Day tea being held by the men of Metropolitan church on Tuesday, November 11, during the afternoon and evening. The tea will be held in the church hall.

Central Lutheran

Guest preacher at the divine worship service at the Central Lutheran Church on Sunday morning will be Rev. H. O. T. Burwell. Prior to the service a Sunday school and Bible class will be conducted. During the evening a special service will be conducted by the Christian Service Group of Camrose Lutheran college.

Increased Interest Is Shown In Nov. 12 Vote: Last Meeting On Monday

I have lots of time to give to the city affairs if you do not mind.

John E. Sytle (Citizens' Committee, Alderman): I am a nominee of the Citizens' Committee for city council. I think you will agree that our platform represents all views, provided they are in the majority, and can well serve the city.

ALL VIEWPOINTS

It was privileged to be present at the meeting when this platform was drawn up. All possible viewpoints in civic affairs were represented. The old test which was applied to all the plans was: Is it in the interests of the city?

The views of Labor were represented by Ald. Parsons and Ald. Bennett and by Mr. Knowlton. They are all members of unions and of the Edmonton Trades and Labor Council, of which Mr. Parsons is president. The Trades and Labor Council represents all the labor minority of organized labor in this city.

The veterans were represented by Aldermen Parsons, Bennett, Garity and Baetz and among the new business, Mr. Knowlton and myself.

Since my discharge from the Royal Air Force I have been in this city but I have found time for other services. I was worked with the Canadian Red Cross, the Salvation Army drive, the Canadian War Service drive, and this summer I was on the northern Alberta committee of the Victory Loan. So you can see I have some experience in the problems relating to the city.

The Citizens' Committee comes in for a good deal of discussion. Its representation is variety itself. On its side are the council are four men.

(Hedeker: So called)

The rest of it are businessmen or professional men and Mr. Douglas, who is retired, is at present successfully running a firm.

(Charles Lee, from the audience, asked: Why did your committee write to the mayor and ask him not to appear at your banquet?)

WAS NO BANQUET

I was not at the meeting which discussed the matter. I was not a member. I don't think there was a banquet. The candidates were asked to remain away from the meeting so that all discussions might take place.

The woman in the audience: I was the general meeting they were asked to stay away from. And I can tell you the committee was not interested in just two men, Mr. Whitaker and Mr. Harwood. The rest are just rubber stamps.

Mr. Sytle: Ladies and gentlemen, I know that statement to be incorrect.

Melvin Downey, Citizens' Committee, public school boards. We are proud of the medical inspection in our city schools. I was speaking of our board medical doctor and he described our pre-school age clinic, where a child who is to start school the next year is examined and as a result put in better shape for starting school. We have a complete physical examinations for children in elementary schools. We have a staff of trained nurses who are constantly making inspections. Thanks to the inoculations against typhoid it is practically unknown in this city. The teeth and rows of the pupils are also examined. In cases where parents are unable to pay for glasses, the board assumes the cost.

Louis D. Hyndman, K.C. (Citizens' Committee, school boards): I can be emphatic that the Citizens' Committee is not in any way a closed organization. Any person may attend the organization meeting each year.

Here some one interrupted with: "That's not so. I was thrown out."

Mr. Hyndman was about to continue when some one interrupted: "I tried to get in, too."

I suggest you come back next September and I'm sure you will be able to get in," the speaker said.

At this point, Mr. Campbell was asked what the procedure is at the Citizens' Committee meetings and the Citizens' Committee candidate for mayor stated the meeting will "never attend a meeting of the Citizens' Committee in my life."

The questioner was asked if he was a doctor and replied: "I don't think there was one."

Mr. Hyndman then stated his information was that the members are held in the Corona and cinema is by ticket. Everyone goes to go in if they have a ticket.

Later, Mr. Hyndman's assertion that Labor is represented on the Citizens' Committee by Bennett and Parsons brought a shouted assertion that these men did not represent labor.

"They are just like Dan Knott," they said out, a voice declared.

Mr. Hyndman was forced to leave the Alberta avenue floor without giving much of his platform because of the repeated interruptions.

At the Memorial Hall a woman said: "I am sorry to see such a fine young man on the Citizens' ticket."

A female, in the Memorial Hall, said that Mr. Hyndman showed ignorance of the subjects on which he spoke.

"Would you care to be more specific?" Mr. Hyndman asked. "I would but I don't think the meeting would stand for it. It would take too long," the speaker stated.

"Then, after the meeting, you stand down there and I'll stand up here and we'll just stay at it all night," Mr. Hyndman countered.

A. E. O'Hare (Citizens' Committee, public school boards): I shall speak tonight about salary reduction with our teachers, as relates to the cost-of-living problem. There is no finer body of public servants than the almost 500 teachers in the public school system here.

In 1929 the board negotiated and established a salary schedule comparable with that of the other municipalities. We were not able to maintain it entirely. But the board has kept the salary ship on a steady keel than in any other city in Canada.

SALARIES RISE

In 1929 the average teacher's salary here was $1,868. In 1941 it is $1,935. This means that the average salary distribution is higher, although it does not mean an increase for every individual teacher. But there has been no drastic cut.

The minimum salary paid for a grade school teacher in our system is $1,800. The maximum is $3,300 for a high school principal, $3,500 and for a high school principal $4,000.

It costs the board $300,000 a year for the annual increments. Besides this we gave a retaining allowance before this year. It was $1,000 in eight. It is one year's salary over three years.

We still give this allowance, along with the pension and it will increase with the cost of living. The maximum of $15,000 a year to maintain.

As to the cost-of-living bonus, we don't know yet exactly what we do or how it will work, but we are getting all the available information and will make careful study of it.

Do not misunderstand me—no good teacher can ever be paid what he is worth to the community. No one is paid the best wage in the city. It is one year's salary over three years.

William Tree, (Canadian Labor Party, school boards): The Canadian Labor Party feels that the teachers are the only ones qualified to understand the problems of the workers.

There are some things in which we are in special agreement with the Citizens' Committee—that there should be a change in the council. We feel further that there should be a change in the school board.

I would like to know why, if a parent is making over $25 a month, he makes low many children he has, he can't get free medical attention from the school board medical department. I know of a family with five children, making $50 a month, who wanted treatment for their children. He didn't get it as he was making too much money.

Higher education and physical well being are the most important problems in the country for our children and youth.

I know Mr. Louis Hyndman and I know Mr. Campbell. I understand why an individual like him is on the Citizens' Committee slate.

Coal Shipments From Alberta To Ontario Greater

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—(CP)—The Wartime Prices and Trade Board announced Friday that 522,000 tons of domestic coal were sent to Ontario coal markets from Alberta and Nova Scotia, B.C. from April 1 to Sept. 31 this year against 344,428 tons in the corresponding period last year.

The board released these figures after a detailed study made Thursday on behalf of coal administrator J. McG. Stewart that increased tonnage of Alberta coal had been ordered by Ontario dealers this year.

Wings Presented To Two Albertans

PINGAL, Ont. Nov. 8.—(CP)—Graduation ceremonies were held yesterday for a class of wireless air cadets from the Pingal school of aviation, which is held in the Corona and cinema is by ticket. Everyone goes to go in if they have a ticket.

Later, Mr. Hyndman's assertion that Labor is represented on the Citizens' Committee by Bennett and Parsons brought a shouted assertion that these men did not represent labor.

"They are just like Dan Knott," they said out, a voice declared.

Mr. Hyndman was forced to leave the Alberta avenue floor without giving much of his platform because of the repeated interruptions.

At the Memorial Hall a woman said: "I am sorry to see such a fine young man on the Citizens' ticket."

A female, in the Memorial Hall, said that Mr. Hyndman showed ignorance of the subjects on which he spoke.

"Would you care to be more specific?" Mr. Hyndman asked. "I would but I don't think the meeting would stand for it. It would take too long," the speaker stated.

"Then, after the meeting, you stand down there and I'll stand up here and we'll just stay at it all night," Mr. Hyndman countered.

A. E. O'Hare (Citizens' Committee, public school boards): I shall speak tonight about salary reduction with our teachers, as relates to the cost-of-living problem. There is no finer body of public servants than the almost 500 teachers in the public school system here.

In 1929 the board negotiated and established a salary schedule comparable with that of the other municipalities. We were not able to maintain it entirely. But the board has kept the salary ship on a steady keel than in any other city in Canada.

SALARIES RISE

In 1929 the average teacher's salary here was $1,868. In 1941 it is $1,935. This means that the average salary distribution is higher, although it does not mean an increase for every individual teacher. But there has been no drastic cut.

The minimum salary paid for a grade school teacher in our system is $1,800. The maximum is $3,300 for a high school principal, $3,500 and for a high school principal $4,000.

It costs the board $300,000 a year for the annual increments. Besides this we gave a retaining allowance before this year. It was $1,000 in eight. It is one year's salary over three years.

We still give this allowance, along with the pension and it will increase with the cost of living. The maximum of $15,000 a year to maintain.

As to the cost-of-living bonus, we don't know yet exactly what we do or how it will work, but we are getting all the available information and will make careful study of it.

Do not misunderstand me—no good teacher can ever be paid what he is worth to the community. No one is paid the best wage in the city. It is one year's salary over three years.

William Tree, (Canadian Labor Party, school boards): The Canadian Labor Party feels that the teachers are the only ones qualified to understand the problems of the workers.

There are some things in which we are in special agreement with the Citizens' Committee—that there should be a change in the council. We feel further that there should be a change in the school board.

I would like to know why, if a parent is making over $25 a month, he makes low many children he has, he can't get free medical attention from the school board medical department. I know of a family with five children, making $50 a month, who wanted treatment for their children. He didn't get it as he was making too much money.

Higher education and physical well being are the most important problems in the country for our children and youth.

I know Mr. Louis Hyndman and I know Mr. Campbell. I understand why an individual like him is on the Citizens' Committee slate.

"We're forming assault teams to capture pillboxes and forts—are any of you guys former oil collectors or process servers?"

Pitcairn Island Faces

Midway between Starvation

Midway between San Francisco and Sydney, Australia, lies Pitcairn Island, glorified in literature and movie, but with 250 inhabitants facing starvation. The island is nothing more than a jutting of rock, two miles long and a mile wide.

Stamps for the little British possession were issued last year for the first time. The issue shows a view of the island from the sea. In the upper right-hand corner is an inset of Fletcher Christian, founder of the colony on Pitcairn.

History has it that Christian and eight fellow seamen who had mutinied aboard Capt. William Bligh's ship, the Bounty, sought refuge on Pitcairn. The mutineers took with them from Tahiti six Tahitian men and about a dozen native women.

Since that time the descendants of the European males and the Polynesian women have managed to exist on the few fruits and vegetables grown there and on the meat that was shipped in.

Short and sweet.

This is the motto for the week's "Parade." It is the motto for a lot of things, too, and of these, one might say, "Kavir," publication of the Edmonton Journal in the west end.

This edition has been circulated throughout the city, wherever students congregate. It is passed from student to student, from school to school, not even from city to city, according to the "moderate." It is a "Kavir" of the West and other topics related to art and the high.

The entire theme of the edition is art and its related subjects. The theme is well-carried out and bears tribute to those responsible for its production.

Broadway's New Starring Vehicle Is A Kiddie Kar!

News Notes Of Alberta Young People

A Page Devoted To Youth . . . Featured Every Saturday

By TOM WOLF
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Curtain time in Broadway has become the children's hour.

Tough, tough, heartbreak Highway has gone past the pitter patter of little feet.

Never before has youth come to the stage of so many plays in the big time.

From the point of view of sheer numbers, producer George Abbott is the theatre's baby. There are some 40 odd pop school boys and their dates at the featured shows which provide the setting for his new musicals.

"Best Foot Forward"

Their average age is 15 years, despite the presence of nearly nine old men, thespians, professor, old grad, etc.) and a "grandmother" in Hollywood star Rosemary Lane, who is now 54.

NOT ABBOTT'S HABIT

It was not from habit that Abbott chose a youthful show to cost the new Broadway season. "This year is a natural for young people in the theatre," the veteran showman explained.

"I wish as often the youngsters were becoming because of world conditions, they are still primarily happy and untroubled. So they can impart fresh, joyous happiness to others. This is a season when people want to escape an unpleasant world when they go to the theatre. It is natural that they should turn to youth to find it."

SERIOUS DREAM, TOO

The evidence on Broadway—bits held over, new hits, hit-parade to come—appears Mr. Abbott the Several quartets of youngsters have grown out of the four-day children roles as "Life With Father" continues to grow older—the present contender for the comedy marquee crown. "Panama Hattie" is getting ready to celebrate its second birthday when Lorna Lynn, who provides this musical's "last" of the "adorable" interest, celebrated her eighth.

Always child-conscious Lillian Hellman wrote three young refugee children into her current, anti-Nazi, anti-fascist drama, "Watch on the Rhine."

In the "Wokey," the other anti-

Farewell To Departing Air Commodore

Senior officers of all the fighting services in the Montreal district paid tribute to Air Commodore G. V. Walsh, M.B.E., Air Officer Commanding, No. 3 Training Command, R.C.A.F., who has been appointed Canadian Air Attache at Washington, at a dinner held in the Winter Club. A Great War flier, Air Commodore Walsh had only recently returned from England where he served as Air Officer commanding the R.C.A.F. overseas, when he was called upon to succeed Air Commodore C. M. Also at the head table were Air Chief Marshal Sir Frederick Bowhill, G.B.E., K.C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., director of the R.A.F. Ferry Command, third from the left; and Comdr. Paul W. Earl, commanding officer of the Montreal and Cartier divisions of the R.C.N.V.R.

and Heuben James, and the tanker Salinas. The James went to the bottom.

The United States announced policy of aid to Britain and Russia is seriously threatened by this accelerated submarine activity in the fog-shrouded waters between Greenland and Iceland.

The broad convoy zone between Newfoundland and English ports runs the gauntlet of submarines lurking on the north flank. The route of aid to Russia via Archangel passes farther north is even more heavily menaced.

The lack of clearing them, even for safe transport of U.S. munitions is immeasurably greater than in the World War. Thus Germany's boats were much farther away from the convoy routes. Now submarines extended range base on the coast of sunken France and Norway.

To combat them the U.S. and Britain maintain regular daylight patrols. The U.S. navy bombers come out from Newfoundland base. The British sweep the sea to the west.

In between lies an area, however, in which even the long-range planes cannot maintain back-and-forth reconnaissance.

Surface vessels and a few long-range planes try to protect this region. Destroyers and corvettes accompany convoys. But the lack of air reconnaissance "in the middle" gives the axis a break, an advantage they've already seized.

The U.S. air patrol out of Iceland is not completely established. It is further handicapped by the frequent fogs that ground planes in the area.

That's the problem facing British and U.S. navies in the North Atlantic. The only counter is increased surface protection until such time as the area can be adequately patrolled from the air, and during those times when fog prevents flying.

But more and more destroyers operating in the hunting ground of the submarines, and possibly more incursions like the Green, Koenig and Janne.
